Bracken County 4-H’ers recognized during National 4-H Week

More than 6 million young people across the country will celebrate National 4-H Week, an annual celebration of 4-H during the first full week of October. Bracken County 4-H will celebrate National 4-H Week this year to showcase the great things that 4-H offers young people and highlights the incredible 4-H youth in the community who work each day to make a positive impact on the community.

Research has proven that participation in 4-H has a significant positive impact on young people. Recent findings from the Tufts University 4-H Study of Positive Youth Development indicate that, when compared to their peers, young people in 4-H are:

- Nearly four times more likely to contribute to their communities,
- Two times more likely to pursue healthy behaviors, and
- Two times more likely to engage in Science, Technology, Engineering and Math (STEM) programs in the out-of-school time.

In Bracken County more than 180 4-H youth and 25-30 volunteers from the community are in-

4-H, the nation’s largest youth development and empowerment organization, cultivates confident kids who tackle the issues that matter most in their communities right now. In the United States, 4-H programs empower six million young people through the 109 land-grant universities and Cooperative Extension in more than 3,000 local offices serving every county and parish in the country. Outside the United States, independent, country-led 4-H organizations empower one million young people in more than 50 countries. National 4-H Council is the private sector, non-profit partner of the Cooperative Extension System and 4-H National Headquarters located at the National Institute of Food and Agriculture (NIFA) within the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA).

“Working Smoke Alarms Save Lives: Test Yours Every Month!”

“Working Smoke Alarms Save Lives: Test Yours Every Month!” is the theme for Fire Prevention Week 2014, October 5-11. As the official sponsor of Fire Prevention Week for more than 90 years, NFPA announced the theme at its 2014 Conference and Expo in Las Vegas.

“Smoke alarms can make a life-saving difference in a fire, but they need to be working,” said Lorraine Carli, NFPA’s vice president of Outreach and Advocacy. “Unfortunately, many home fire deaths result from fires where a smoke alarm is present but does not operate. This year’s Fire Prevention Week theme focuses on motivating people to test their smoke alarms each month to make sure they’re working properly.”

According to NFPA statistics:

- Having a working smoke alarm in the home cuts the risk of dying in a fire in half.
- On average each year, three out of five home fire deaths result in fires where there are either no smoke alarms or no working smoke alarms.
- In one-quarter (23 percent) of the home fire deaths, smoke alarms were present but did not sound.

“Nearly 3,000 people continue to die in fires each year, with most of those deaths occurring in homes,” said Carli. “The vast majority of home fire deaths are preventable, and working smoke alarms play a big role in helping reduce those numbers.”

- NFPA recommends:
- Installing smoke alarms inside every bedroom, outside each sleeping area and on every level of the home, including the basement.
 - Testing all smoke alarms every month by using the test button.

- Replacing all smoke alarms every 10 years or sooner if they don’t respond properly when tested.

Fire Prevention Week occurs annually in October during the week in which October 9 falls, commemorating the Great Chicago Fire of 1871. Each year, NFPA works in coordination with partnering companies, organizations and fire departments to promote Fire Prevention Week and its fire safety messages throughout North America.

For more information on Fire Prevention Week and this year’s campaign theme, “Working Smoke Alarms Save Lives: Test Yours Every Month!”, visit www.fpw.org.

Brooksville Volunteer Fireman Jeff “Smooth” Perkins can be seen above discussing fire safety with some 4-H members during their Day Camp held this summer. Members of our local volunteer fire departments spend hours yearly educating our youth and giving back to the community each year.

For Experience - Vision - Leadership

★ RE-ELECT EARL BUSH ★

Bracken County Judge Executive

By focusing on the issues, planning carefully, working together, and making tough decisions, Bracken County has made much progress that you can be proud of over the past four years.

By spending your tax dollars wisely, we have lowered the general fund tax rates while increasing the reserve (savings) in the general fund.

By planning and preparing, we have obtained $476,000 in funds for additional paving of county roads.

By taking advantage of available programs, we have replaced 8 bridges and culverts throughout the county with 2 additional replacements planned for this fall.

By seeking out, writing, and receiving the grants, we have developed the horse trails at the Industrial Park, and will receive new equipment to upgrade our 911/Dispatch system.

Some of my goals for the next four years include

- Continue development of the horse trails and recreational area of the Industrial Park with restroom facilities, horse stalls, a camping area, and handicap accessible path and pier on the Big Bass Lake utilizing grants where available
- Continue improving county roads and bridges
- Continue to upgrade county equipment to control costs and serve the citizens
- Have Bracken County certified as a Work Ready Community to have the county better prepared for job opportunities
- Strengthen and improve Emergency Management plans for the county
- Find industrial and commercial businesses for the Industrial Park to provide job opportunities to our citizens
- See the Bracken County Citizens Working Together program succeed in conquering the drug epidemic in our communities

I look forward to hearing from you and talking with you about your concerns, your needs, and your ideas. By working together we can continue to make Bracken County an even better place to live, work, and raise a family. I appreciate your trust and support and ask for your vote on November 4th.

You can contact me at 606-402-1533.

Card of Thanks

It is with hearts full of gratitude that we pay it forward and take this opportunity to ask God to bless the many, many family, friends and total strangers who prayed for us during our family’s medical crisis! On August 28, a medical miracle occurred when Tommy was diagnosed with a blood glucose reading of 2,100! Not only did he not go into a coma, he lives on to continue his legacy of ‘picking on’ anyone in range! We especially want to say a big ‘THANK YOU’ to Stacey Florer and the Bracken County Road Department for taking care of the Recycling Trailers during this time! All the calls, cards, visits, concerns and the many prayers have meant more to us than words can express! Recovery is ongoing and we appreciate the continued support, but just wanted to let everyone know (more specifically – warn!) that we will soon be resuming normal activities! Again, we believe in the power of prayer, and know that Tommy is living proof of its positive outcome! May God bless each and every one of you.

The heroin epidemic is affecting all members of our community. Jason has seen the impact it has on families and our youngest citizens. That is why he has a multi-faceted approach to combat the dealers and provide resources to treat addiction through rehabilitation and recovery.

Expanding Access to Quality Education

Jason has been a teacher, coach and school administrator for the past 13 years. Education is an investment to increased prosperity with every child having the right to a quality education. With Gratitude

I am truly blessed and humbled by the outpouring of love and caring support of my wonderful family, friends, church family and community upon the loss of my dear Jim, so unexpectedly on Sept. 11th. He so loved his new found smalltown life and would be pleased at how well I'm being cared for by all. You know who you are and I love you dearly, thank you. It's true, there's no place like home.

God Bless,

Thoughts and Meditations from the Scriptures

ASKING QUESTIONS AND ACCEPTING THE ANSWERS

Faithful are the wounds of a friend, but the kisses of an enemy are deceitful. - Proverbs 27:6

How often do you ask someone a question when you already know the answer and just want to be reassured that you are on the right track? Sometimes we need feedback from our boss or our teacher that we are completing a task or doing our work correctly. Getting feedback is prudent if we think we might be going down the wrong path, but having to be constantly reassured is tiresome and frustrating to those who are being asked the same question over and over again. When we really don't know the answer to important questions we should be quick to ask, but also willing to accept that we might not like the answer we get. If we are genuinely interested in knowing how we look, or how we are doing at work or at school, we should accept the bitter truth that we might not look so great, or that we're performing below par in certain areas of our lives. Knowledge can be a bitter pill, but if we want to improve, and all of us should certainly want this, we should ask questions of those who will tell us the truth. We can always ask ourselves these hard questions, but we should realize that we are usually our easiest critics. It's easy to see the speck in someone else's eye while missing the log in our own. – Christopher Simon

October greetings. Each day may we light up God's world by reflecting the light of JESUS, God's only begotten Son. On this cool, cloudy Sunday morning of October 5, we had 59 to SS and 101 to worship service.

Our special was by Jane Nelson. She played "I'd Rather Have Jesus" and "The Ole Time Religion".

Our revival starts Sunday, Oct. 12-17. Great messages by Bro. Bruce Heller and inspirational singing each evening by different singers. Our revival starts at 7 p.m. We want souls to be rekindled and the lost to find their way to the Lord. We will be looking for you!

Bro. Jackie's message continued from Genesis 18:16-33. "Abraham Pleads for Sodom". What about us? Are we pleading for our country and the Lost?

Remember in PRAYER: Colton Williams, Butch Sutton (chemo), David Wiseman (heart by pass surgery), Sis Garrison, John Cooper (was with us today), and each name on the prayer list and each other. Sympathy and prayers to ALL the families in the passing of their loved ones. God will comfort you.

Sat., Oct. 11 - Weiner Roast 6 p.m.

Sun., Oct. 12 - Potluck dinner following morning service.

May we all just turn our eyes upon JESUS and look full in His wonderful face... The things of earth will grow strangely dim!

Sunday Lunch October 19th

Let's do it again! Have Sunday lunch with us - Jackie Hamilton & granddaughters at the Watson Building from 11-2 p.m. on Sunday, October 19. Come sit a spell, talk to your neighbors, have some good food and let mom have a break from cooking! Watch next week's "News" for ad with menu!

Pastor Elizabeth Smith's sermon, titled "What kind of fruit do you bear?" came from Matthew 21:33-46. We were reminded to love your enemies which is hard to do, but we should strive to do so.

The meeting will include workshops and a free lunch. The Covington District Big Event will be on Nov. 15 at Immanuel United Methodist Church in Lakeside, Ky. Our Sunday morning services include Sunday School at 9:45, Worship services at 10:45, J-Club will be at 5:00 each Sunday afternoon. We also have Wed. night Bible Study at 6:30 and back to the Basics on Fri. at 6:30.

We pray for those who are suffering in mind, spirit, or body. We also pray for our community, our nation and our world. We want to remember Sue and Monte Case in the loss of her mother, Wanda Sanders.

Please come and join us as we worship together at the little white church on the corner.

BROOKSVILLE CHRISTIAN

Hear ye, Hear ye! Everyone's invited this Sunday for breakfast at 9:15 a.m. If you don't think it's the best breakfast you've ever had, your meal is FREE. Actually it's our monthly outreach when we invite anyone looking for a place to worship to stop by and check out all that our church has to offer. You won't be sorry you did.

During service, Shane filled in for Ron, and did a fine job teaching from the Book of Mark. If we are truly students of Jesus, the teacher, we will understand His word and be like the seed sown in good soil, growing and multiplying.

Also during service, Karin Poe reported on all the great things the Cancer Care Group has been doing throughout Bracken County. If you would like to contribute or get involved, they will meet in the church fellowship hall Nov. 11 at 6:30 p.m.

Other activities include: Sunday School 10 a.m.; Sunday worship 10:45 a.m.; Choir practice 5:30 p.m. Sunday; K-5 grade youth group 6 p.m. Sunday; Sunday night Bible Study 6 p.m.; 6-12 grade youth group 7 p.m.; Men's Bible Study 7:30 p.m. Monday.

This Saturday, October 11, St. James is hosting the seventh annual Public Square Rosary Rally to be held on the Bracken County Courthouse lawn beginning at Noon. We urge all parishioners and community members to join us in praying for the many needs of this country! For too long, the Christian majority has allowed our leaders to enact laws that are contrary to God's laws, creating a society that is out of control! FAT CHANCE

Much has been made of the fact that the omega-3 fatty acids found in fatty fish such as salmon, mackerel, and albacore tuna may protect against heart disease and, possibly, stroke. Now, there comes word from a study involving nearly 2,000 individuals with moderateto-high risk of developing "agerelated macular degeneration" (AMD) that these same polyunsaturated fatty acids may help stave off AMD. This is important news because AMD, the leading cause of vision loss among older adults, has no known cure. While the disease, which affects the central portion of the retina, may be managed, treatment can delay and possibly prevent intermediate AMD from progressing to the advanced stage. For this reason, prevention is the best approach. As mentioned in today's column, there is growing evidence that by improving your diet, you may also improve the health of your eyes. Regular visits to your ophthalmologist should be as important as regular visits to your family physician. At KENTUCKY EYE INSTITUTE, we will help you acquire an understanding of your particular situation and of your treatment options. We're located at 1937 Old Main St., Suite 1, Old Washington, where we are dedicated to diagnosing and caring for all disorders of the eye. Please call 606.759.7883 or 800.658.7282 to schedule an appointment. We stress preventive health care. We specialize in "EYE CARE FOR ALL AGES."

P.S. The "wet" form of AMD occurs when abnormal blood vessels behind the retina start to grow under the macula; the "dry" form occurs when macular tissue gradually becomes thin and stops functioning properly.

PRESBYTERIAN POTPOURRI

by Les Grooms, pastor
Augusta Presbyterian

We are getting a new roof on the church. The roof committee, (Earl Bush, Howard Murray, and David England) made a recommendation to the Session and they unanimously approved the recommendation and soon work will begin on replacing the roof. We are going with a metal roof which could last longer than anyone on the committee or anyone on the session.

We had 63 in attendance Sunday. Earl Bush was the worship leader, Susie Hargett led the singing, Jean Appelman prepared the communion elements, and Earl & Millie Bush served the elements.

While the communion was being served, Susie Hargett sang Blessed Assurance which had been requested by Cora Morris's sister. Beautiful song sung acappella.

There is a revival going on at the Christian Church. Kenny Speaks is the evangelist.

Sofiah Sexton attended the Emmaus Walk this past weekend at Camp Ruggles.

Betty Bush and Jim Appelman have both been under the weather recently. We pray for speedy recoveries.

We have our soup supper on Monday night and our Bread Basket meal on Wednesday. Our coat ministry will start next Monday night. We have a number of gently used coats that are there for the asking.

We are planning to have a joint service and joint meal with the Christian Church before Thanksgiving. We have done this for a number of years and we always enjoy their fellowship.

October is pastor appreciation month and Kay and I were given matching watches by our congregation. They are such a loving congregation and we certainly have enjoyed our 13 years here servicing the Augusta Presbyterian Church.

“Favorite Christmas Memories” theme for this year’s Christmas parade

“Favorite Christmas Melodies “ is the theme for the annual “Light of Brooksville” parade on Saturday, December 6 at 4:30 p.m.

Lineup will be at 3:30 p.m. at Taylor Elementary. Everyone has plenty of time to get your float together. “Some will choose to walk and carry a poster telling who they represent and this is great also. Some will play a CD (loudly) and decorate their vehicle accordingly. There is no limit to the possibilities. It is OK to use the following as Debbie and I have another plan: Put garland on your pick-up, play “I saw mama kissing Santa Clause”, and have mom and Santa in the bed of the pick-up kissing for the one hour parade. They will be “puckered out” but will have a lot of fun.” said parade committee member Tom Cortner

Moore and Parker Funeral Homes will again sponsor the Grand Marshal’s reception from 2 – 3 p.m.

The AOC provided the judicial education program for the state’s district judges. (Please see the list below for names of judges who attended the college.)

The District Court judges attended sessions on DUI, expungements, court technology and Senate Bill 200, the juvenile justice reform that the governor recently signed into law. The legislation steers more young offenders into community-based treatment for underlying issues rather than locking them up in detention centers for non-violent acts, such as truancy.

“This is an especially exciting time for the courts and the people we serve,” said Jefferson District Court Judge Donald E. Armstrong Jr., who is also president of the Kentucky District Judges Association. “With the passage of Senate Bill 200, we can expect to see fewer troubled children and families in our courtrooms and more getting the help they need through programs that have proven successful. We can be proud that the court system has an integral role in carrying out this meaningful legislation and that those efforts are well underway.

“The court system is also on track to become more efficient since eFiling has recently been launched in nine counties. By the end of 2015, attorneys will be able to file a case electronically in any Kentucky county. This move from paper to digital will streamline the way the courts do business, improving the process for lawyers and their clients.”

Judges also received updates on case law and legislation at the college and attended a session on firearms prohibitions under House Bill 308. HB 308 took effect in 2011 and requires Kentucky to notify the FBI when a court finds an individual mentally incompetent. Federal law prohibits the sale of guns to anyone adjudicated as mentally defective or who has been committed to a mental institution.

Other sessions focused on leadership, community outreach and election issues. The judges heard from the state Judicial Conduct Commission about elections. All 116 of the state’s district judges are up for election this year.

The judges also met with Chief Justice of Kentucky John D. Minton Jr., who offered them the opportunity to share their thoughts and ask questions on court system topics.

The college included 15.25 hours of continuing education credit for the district judges.

District Court judges handle juvenile matters, city and county ordinances, misdemeanors, violations, traffic offenses, probate of wills, arraignments, felony probable cause hearings, small claims involving $2,500 or less, civil cases involving $5,000 or less, voluntary and involuntary mental commitments and cases relating to domestic violence and abuse. In Fiscal Year 2013, 713,903 District Court cases were filed statewide.

Administrative Office of the Courts

The AOC is the operations arm for the state court system and supports the activities of nearly 3,300 court system employees and 403 elected justices, judges and circuit court clerks. As the fiscal agent for the state court system, the AOC also executes the Judicial Branch budget.

Tips for transferring between colleges

Many college students end up transferring from one school to another. Some students plan it that way, going to a two-year school to complete their basics, then finishing up at a four-year school. Others find the school they chose really isn't the best fit for them, or perhaps family circumstances changed.

The Kentucky Higher Education Assistance Authority (KHEAA) offers these tips for making sure your transfer goes smoothly.

One thing to do is contact the registrar's office at your new school to find out what credits and grades you earned at your current school will transfer.

You should talk with the financial aid office at your current school to make sure you don't owe anything or to find out if you get a refund. Also talk with the financial aid office at your new school to make sure you've done everything you need to get funding when you transfer.

These tools can help answer your questions about transferring:

- the Transfer Planning Guide section of www.knowhow2transfer.org.

- the General Education Transfer Policy at www.knowhow2goky.org.

If you have more questions about transferring, each college should have a contact person who can answer them.

TRASH TALK

by: Mr. Recycle Bin & Ms. Pick-Up Litterbug

Howdy Folks! Mother Nature certainly put a chill in the air this past weekend and even included some frost on the pumpkins! Like it or not, fall weather is upon us and the weather will be a virtual roller coaster ride until winter sets in for its share of the yearly seasons! But, before that happens, we still have time to get some fall cleaning completed. To help get rid of any junk that we all seem to accumulate, we will once again have some roll-offs available to accept those cast-offs. Beginning this week, there will be a dumpster located in Germantown just beyond the recycling trailer behind the Germantown Firehouse/Community Building and another one located on the Old 19 Hill below Snappy Pizza but closer to the intersection of the Dwayne "Pie" Jett Highway 19. These dumpsters will remain in place until full and then they will be emptied and re-located. By now, everyone should know the rules, but we will elaborate once again. Absolutely, no tires, liquids, hazardous waste, closed drums, or appliances.

Paint is a liquid until you take steps to dry it out and then those pails can be put into the roll-offs. Paint can be poured out onto a large plastic sheet and left to air dry, but make sure that children and pets cannot get to that area. Paint can be left to dry in the bucket with the lid removed, but drying time depends on the amount of paint left. To hasten the process, kitty litter, dirt, old rags or torn newspaper can be added to the paint. There is also a waste paint hardener sold under the brand name of "Krud Kutter" that can be added to paint to create a solidified product that is completely safe to be put in with normal household garbage. A 3.5

ounce packet of crystals will harden a 2/3 gallon of paint for safe disposal, and can be purchased at Home Depot for around $2.29. We also found "Crown" brand waste paint hardener sold in Lowes for $1.98 for a 3.5 ounce packet. Whatever method you choose, you must take the necessary steps to harden the paint in order to put it into the roll-offs or your home garbage for Rumpke pickup!

Another product that you may have for disposal is used light bulbs. The CFL (compact fluorescent light) bulbs can be taken to the Maysville Lowe's store for recycling. Just wrap the bulb in a plastic bag and place in the recycling container located just inside the Returns Department. This type of bulb contains a trace amount of mercury which is actually 1/100th of the amount of mercury used in older thermometers. Because of the mercury, the EPA has created special guidelines to use for cleaning up broken CFL's. It is always a good idea to put any broken light bulb, or any type of broken glass, into a separate bag for safer disposal. While you are doing your fall cleaning, you may find those strings of Christmas (or Halloween) lights that no longer light up your world. These also can be taken to Lowe's for recycling and that container will remain at Lowe's until the end of the year.

Any metal that you have for disposal can be left on the outside of the roll-offs for the metal recyclers to collect or dropped off at the County Maintenance Barn. As always, please be considerate of others using the roll-offs, and considerate of Mother Nature by RECYCLING, REUSING and REDUCING to keep God's earth clean, green and beautiful! Be seen' you – Bin & Bug.

4-H Day Camp focused on "Hometown Heroes"

This year's Day Camp was held in July. The theme was "Hometown Heroes". The kids celebrated and talked about heroes that help us in our community. The kids dressed up in their favorite Red, White, and Blue attire for individual and group photos.

Campaign signs to be removed from state rights of way
Signs block motorists' vision, pose hazards for drivers and workers

Campaign and other temporary advertising signage illegally placed on state highway rights of way will be removed to maintain safety. According to Kentucky Transportation Cabinet (KYTC) officials, signs show up along state highways in greater numbers in the month prior to an election.

"This time of year especially, we see a lot of signs," said Rob Hans, chief district engineer for KYTC District 6. "Political signs and other advertising signs can block the view of drivers at intersections as they watch for oncoming traffic."

Kentucky law and Transportation Cabinet policy prohibit the placement of political or other advertising signs on state rights of way, including signs attached to utility poles or fences within the area. Homeowners who maintain their lawn to the pavement edge should also keep yard signs behind the right of way line.

Enforcement of the sign prohibition can be difficult because right of way boundaries vary by highway and location. All signage should be behind sidewalks. In areas without sidewalks, all signs should be behind the ditch line and outside areas commonly mowed or maintained by highway crews. Often, utility poles will mark the edge of highway rights of way. On four-lane highways with controlled access or limited access, no signs should be placed on the highway side of the fence line or the fence.

Illegally placed signs picked up by highway crews will be moved to the state highway garage in each county and kept for five working days. Owners may claim them by showing identification and completing a claim form. Unclaimed signs will be discarded.

"Employees who are removing signs are acting in the best interest of all motorists and of maintenance crews," State Highway Engineer Steve Waddle said. "We appreciate the public's cooperation and understanding."

KYTC District 6 is responsible for more than 4,657 miles of roadway in Boone, Bracken, Campbell, Carroll, Gallatin, Grant, Harrison, Kenton, Owen, Pendleton and Robertson counties.

November 21st first application cutoff period for the (EQIP) Program

The USDA-Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS) in Kentucky is encouraging landowners, farmers and producers to visit their local NRCS office now to receive information and apply for conservation technical assistance and possible financial funding opportunities.

The application process for NRCS's conservation programs is continuous, but funding selections for specific programs are made throughout the year. For the Environmental Quality Incentives Program (EQIP) the first application cutoff period date for consideration for 2015 funds is November 21, 2014. Applications received after November 21, 2014, will be held until the next application cut off period, which will be March 20, 2015.

EQIP is a conservation program that provides financial and technical assistance to farmers and ranchers who face threats to soil, water, air, and related natural resources on their land. Through EQIP, NRCS develops contracts with agricultural producers to voluntarily implement conservation practices. Persons engaged in livestock or agricultural production and owners of non-industrial private forestland are eligible for this program. Eligible land includes cropland, pastureland, private non-industrial forestland, and other farm or ranch lands.

EQIP offers several National and State Initiatives which include the Seasonal High Tunnel Initiative, Organic Initiative, On-Farm Energy Initiative, Wildlife Initiative, and Forestry Initiative. Interested land users should visit their local NRCS Office to find out what opportunities are available through each of these EQIP Initiatives.

"We're getting an earlier start on EQIP contracts this year to give farmers more time to install practices," said Deena Wheby, assistant state conservationist for programs.

All recipients of assistance are required to develop a conservation plan. Conservation planning is an integral part of the conservation process. Landowners should work with a conservation planner to develop the plan based on the landowner's operational goals to improve the productivity, sustainability and profitability of their operation.

"Good conservation planning helps us identify the practices that will best address a landuser's resource concerns," Wheby said. The conservation plan will serve as a roadmap to a variety of technical assistance and financial assistance through EQIP as well as other options available to the landowner.

For more information visit NRCS on the web at www.ky.nrcs.usda.gov or contact your local NRCS service center at <http://of-fices.sc.egov.usda.gov/locator/app>.

Kentucky Treasurer Hollenbach warns of sweepstakes tax scam

Scammers seek tax payment for phony Million Dollar Prize!

Kentucky Treasurer Todd Hollenbach says scam artists are at work again calling Kentuckians with the news that they've won a $2.5-million dollar international sweepstakes but to claim the prize they're required to first wire $1295 cash to the scammers.

"This is an obvious scam that preys on the elderly", the Treasurer said. "So called 'winners' of the sweepstakes are being notified with phone calls from Las Vegas, Jamaica or Nigeria, identifying themselves as representatives of the Treasury, asking that taxes be paid before their cash prize can be delivered."

"I could describe twenty different scenarios' these scammers use in their phony plays", Hollenbach said, "but it all comes down to this: At some point, a scam artist will ask you to send money or pay some type of fee in order to get your prize. Don't do it! No legitimate contest, sweepstakes or lottery ever asks for an advance fee to claim winnings."

If you're looking for legitimate lost or abandoned cash, Treasurer Hollenbach suggests searching the unclaimed property database at MissingMoney.com or if you don't have access to the internet, you can call Treasury's Unclaimed Property office toll-free at 800-465-4722.

Each year, the Kentucky Treasury returns millions of dollars in unclaimed property to Kentucky residents. Since 2008, under the proactive leadership of Treasurer Hollenbach and his Treasure Finder's Program, the Treasurer has returned a record $110-million in unclaimed property toward his goal of $120-million before he finishes his term next year.

OSU Three-peats at Keystone

The Ohio State University Livestock Judging Team won the Keystone International Livestock Exposition (KILE) Collegiate Livestock Judging contest on Oct. 4, at the Pennsylvania Farm Show Complex and Exposition Center in Harrisburg, Penn. The win is the third in a row for OSU at KILE, which is a first for the school.

Ohio State was among nine university teams around the country to judge five cattle classes, four swine classes, and three sheep classes. The competitors presented oral reasons on eight of the 12 classes. OSU swept the team awards by winning each species and oral reasons en route to a 113-point margin of victory.

Individually, four OSU students finished in the top ten overall. Lydia Ulry, Johnstown, Ohio, won the contest and was high individual in beef cattle and swine judging. Courtney Tarvin, Mt. Olivet, Ky., Tonya Fender, Lynchburg, Ohio, and Jacob Ruffing, Republic, Ohio, finished fourth, fifth and sixth, respectively. Levi Criswell, Marion, Ohio, finished 11th after losing the tiebreaker for 10th. Fender, and teammate, Megan Hunker, Bellevue, Ohio, posted the highest total reasons scores in the contest. Zach Bartenslager, Lewisburg, W. Va., placed sixth in beef cattle and Cody Shafer, Eaton, Ohio, finished third in sheep judging. Courtney Tarvin, extreme left, is a Bracken County High School graduate, the daughter of Eric and Karen Tarvin of Mt. Olivet and the granddaughter of Charlie and Bernie Tarvin of Berlin and Judy Morford of Mt. Olivet.

The team is preparing to compete at three more contests this fall; Stockman in Auburn, Ind., American Royal held in Kansas City, Mo, and the national contest held in conjunction with the North American International Livestock Exposition in Louisville, KY.

New process will reduce processing times and improve quality

The Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) has announced that it is introducing a uniformed disability claims form to better serve Veterans, families and survivors. Standardizing the process by which Veterans file claims and initiate appeals will make it easier for Veterans and their survivors to clearly state what benefits they are seeking from VA and provide information that is necessary to process their claims and appeals. The new forms eliminate applicant guesswork, which often leads to delays in decisions and ultimately delays in receiving benefits. The new regulations go into effect in late March 2015.

"We must do everything that we can to make it as fast and easy as possible for Veterans and their survivors to file for and receive an accurate decision on their claim," said VA Secretary Robert McDonald. "Our Veterans and survivors will know, at the outset of the claims process, what is needed, which removes subjective interpretation from the process. We want to eliminate any barriers that make it difficult for our Veterans or survivors to receive benefits to which they are entitled."

In the past, a Veteran or survivor did not have to use a certain form to seek compensation or other benefits from VA. Claims or appeals (Notice of Disagreement) could be submitted on any piece of paper which caused delays due to missing information.

By using standard forms for all disability claims, VA can more quickly and accurately identify what the Veteran is claiming or appealing. This will allow VA to immediately move on to next steps in the evidence-gathering and decision-making process, which saves administrative processing time and speeds the delivery of earned benefits. The existing process is also inconsistent with most, if not all, other government and non-government application processes, such as applying for social security, applying for a driver's license, applying for a job or filing for an income tax refund.

"These days, government agencies and private businesses rely on standard forms to deliver faster and more accurate customer service," said Under Secretary for Benefits Allison A. Hickey. "VA's ability to deliver better customer service requires the use of standard forms as well. That is why we worked extensively with our partners in the Veterans community to streamline the way we process claims while preserving the effective date rules concerning informal claims through the creation of a new intent to file a claim process."

The updated process also includes standardizing the traditional informal claims process by employing a new "Intent to File a Claim" process which affords the Veteran or survivor one year to compile the necessary documentation or evidence to support the claim while preserving an effective date of claim.

More information about VA Forms 21-526EZ, 21-527EZ, 21-534EZ or VA Form 21-0958, Notice of Disagreement, may be found at www.ebenefits.va.gov or www.va.gov/vaforms/.

Deer in the headlights, now more than usual

To everything there is a season, and Kentucky's drivers must once again brace themselves for the annual three-month increase in roadway encounters, and collisions, with the most dangerous animal in the United States – the white-tailed deer.

The Insurance Institute for Highway Safety (IIHS) estimates that each year white-tailed deer cause car accidents across the nation that are responsible for tens of thousands of injuries and the deaths of approximately 200 Americans. Those collisions also carry the hefty price tag of $4.6 billion in insurance claims annually.

Vehicular collisions with deer increase during this time of year in conjunction with the annual peak season for deer migration and mating. Kentucky's exploding deer population has only expanded the opportunities for these accidents to occur. Deer are also naturally on the move during this season, and urban sprawl has introduced many new roads into the natural habitats of these animals. Consequently, deer are seen and struck on the roadways during the last three months of the year almost more often than all the other nine months combined.

Kentucky State Police (KSP) data reports that Kentuckians were in a total of 2,766 automobile collisions with deer last year (32 fewer than in 2012), resulting in 132 injuries but no deaths. However, Kentucky Farm Bureau (KFB) Insurance claims data also shows that these collisions have clearly defined seasonal peaks. Approximately $21.2 million in deer collision claims were filed with KFB in 2013, but nearly 46% of those claims resulted from accidents occurring during October, November and December.

Further analysis of KFB Insurance claims data from the past five years shows that automobiles collided with deer on Kentucky roadways at a clip of 28.51 deer per 1,000 drivers during the month of November, well outpacing the national average of 14.1. As a result of those collisions, KFB Insurance customers filed more than $4.7 million in claims just during November of 2013.

"The numbers are certainly telling of the frequency of these accidents, but we have to keep in mind that behind those numbers are real people and real injuries," said Greg Youngblood, KFB Insurance's Vice President of Claims. "Our hope is that calling attention to the seasonal increase in deer collisions will increase driver awareness and reduce the number of incidents on Kentucky's roads this fall."

Now that the seasonal jump in deer activity is here, motorists should take the time to be aware of their surroundings even more than usual. KFB advises motorists to drive defensively on the roadways this fall, especially when headed through wooded areas where deer are likely to be seen.

Tips to help drivers avoid deer collisions:

Watch for deer crossing signs. These signs are posted to alert drivers that certain stretches of the road are commonly populated with deer – do not ignore the warning.

Be aware of the time. Deer are most commonly seen along roadways in the early morning and evening hours. Exercise additional caution if traveling during these times of day.

When driving after dark, use high-beam headlights to increase the range of vision.

If a deer is spotted on or near the road, slow down immediately.

Don't swerve if a deer is in the road. Brake firmly but keep the vehicle headed in a straight line. A swerving vehicle can confuse the animal and prevent it from picking a direction to flee, and, worse yet, the driver could lose control and hit a tree or another car.

Always wear a seat belt. The Kentucky State Police says that most people injured or killed in automobile collisions with deer are not wearing seat belts.

Concerned Citizens

The November 4th election is approaching quickly and door-to-door campaigning offers a great opportunity to talk with you. I want to address an accusation I have heard regarding what I will do about ambulance service in Augusta when re-elected to the office of Judge Executive.

By state law the county judge/executive is the chief administrator of the county. That does not mean he or she has free reign over everything that happens in the county. For example, the judge executive cannot remove or dissolve or discontinue ambulance service anywhere in the county. That service in Bracken County is under the direction of an established board. The board members are appointed by the judge executive and approved by the fiscal court. My focus is working with the Ambulance Board to provide the best service possible to the entire county. Our Ambulance Board works diligently with limited resources to do its very best for our citizens.

For anyone who would like or needs to know the duties and responsibilities of the county judge executive in Kentucky, those can be found at the official Kentucky County Judge/Executive Association website. Those duties and responsibilities are also outlined in the Kentucky Revised Statutes.

My goal has always been to do what's right for all the citizens of Bracken County, to perform my duties fairly and responsibly, to use our tax dollars wisely, and to make the tough decisions that are required of leadership.

I appreciate your trust and support and ask for your vote on November 4th. You can contact me at 606-402-1533.

Niemeier completes 106th Session of National Sheriffs' Institute

Sheriff Howard W. Niemeier of the Bracken County Sheriff's Office completed participation in the 106th session of the National Sheriffs' Institute (NSI) held in Aurora, CO, September 14-19. The NSI is the only national executive development program designed for sheriffs. This no-cost program is co-sponsored by the National Institute of Corrections (NIC) and the National Sheriffs' Association (NSA). Sheriff Niemeier joined 25 other sheriffs from across the country for training on contemporary challenges facing America's sheriffs today. In light of those challenges, the sheriffs explored the role of the local sheriff in providing effective leadership for the public good in such areas as public safety, criminal justice system policy, community relations, and organization effectiveness and efficiency.

Fred G. Wilson, NSA Director of Operations, said, "Sheriff Niemeier is a leader with vision for the Bracken County Sheriff's Office. It is an honor to have Sheriff Niemeier join the more than 2,500 graduates of the NSI since 1973."

Augusta XC travels to Williamstown

For the sixth Saturday in a row, the Augusta cross country team loaded up the bus to compete. On October 4, the team returned to northern Kentucky for the second straight week to participate in the Williamstown Invitational.

Leading the Panthers in the boys' varsity race, which featured 99 runners, was junior Camryn Snapp, placing fourth running 17:55. That was 23 seconds behind the winner, AJ Plitzuweit of Dixie Heights, who had the winning time in 17:33. Three of the four remaining varsity runners lowered their times from the last race. Rhys Todd finished in 20:18, David Reed in 21:04, Jon Barrett in 24:05, and Adam Sallee in 31:50. Augusta's only middle school runner, Seth Fouts, ran his first-ever 5K race by competing in the boys' junior varsity event. He finished in a respectable 22:56.

Overall, Coach Tim Litteral was pleased with the performances. "Rhys and David both knocked time off from the previous week. With our next two meets being at Mason County, where they and others have already performed well, I would expect faster times at our next couple of races," Litteral said.

For Augusta's only upperclassman, Snapp ran his seventh consecutive meet in the 17:00s, which was a particular bright spot. "Sometimes athletes are harder on themselves than their coaches are, and I don't think Camryn was real pleased with his performance, but the sub-18:00 consistency is a big step this season. He wasn't that far off from the winning time, and actually decreased the distance between him and AJ (the race winner) from previous races," Litteral commented. The decrease in distance that Litteral refers to is that Plitzuweit and Snapp have now competed three times this season. In the first two meets, Plitzuweit finished 30-40 seconds ahead of Snapp, but at the most recent meet, only 22 seconds separated the two runners. "Cross country courses aren't like basketball courts or football fields. Every course is unique, and it's often hard to compare times from one week to the next because of that. But sometimes you can gauge progress by how the guys are competing against familiar competition, and Cam is closing the gap," said Litteral.

On the other end of the age spectrum, the 5K performance of seventh grader Seth Fouts was another bright spot for Litteral. "We wanted to see how Seth would perform in a 5K, and to be honest, I thought he might run in the 25:00 to 27:00 range," he said. "I was very pleased with the sub-23:00 performance for his first time."

The Panthers will take this Saturday off. However, they come back to a busy schedule to finish out the regular season. Over their fall break, Augusta runners will compete at the Buffalo Trace Conference Championship on Tuesday, October 14, as well as the Area 7 Championship on Saturday, October 18. Their final tune-up before the Region 5 Championship will be October 23 at Clark County.

Bracken runners compete in Williamstown Invitational Meet

Bracken County Cross Country teams travelled to Williamstown, KY this past Saturday, October 4th to compete in the Williamstown Invitational. Despite the cold damp Autumn morning, Bracken's runners came out and gave it their all. In preparing for the Meet of Champions and Regionals, Coach Forrest Hunt has been changing up the races his middle school runners have been competing in. This has enabled him to have a complete Varsity Girls team and strong Varsity Boys team from which to pull from.

In this week's Girls Varsity 5000m Race, 8th grader Heather Ebert brought her "A game" had came from behind to finish 28th in 24:11.20. She was followed quickly by 8th grader Kyndal Dotson in 30th place in 24:15.10 and Senior Ashley Anderson in 32nd place in 24:25.50. Sophomore Samantha Anderson finished 68th in 29:54.10 while 7th grader Joy Ebert finished 77th in 32:32.70. Despite missing 8th graders Holly Ebert who has been injured since the third meet and Natalie Bell, the girls were able to claim 8th place team overall and are congratulated for their showing in this race as all but one improved their time from the Scott Eagle Classic back on September 20th.

The Boys Varsity 5000m race played out as anticipated and the top seven runners are falling into line for qualifying to run at regionals. Eighth graders Collin Jefferson finished 68th in 21:26.30, Daniel Simons finished 79th in 22:15.70, Brandon Cox finished 82nd in 22:21, 7th grader Kaleb Darnell returned from an injury to finish 86th in 23:25.20 as did senior Arthur Wallace who finished 87th in 23:49.30, the final Bracken runner was junior Griffin Walton who finished 90th in 24:18.50. The boys are congratulated for their 9th place overall team ranking.

With the restructuring of the middle school boys team, 8th grade veteran Cavin Wallace competed in his first race of the season to finish 62nd in the boys 4000m race in 21:23.80 followed by newcomer Matthew Dice in 76th place at 23:57.50.

The sixth grade middle school runners will be competing in the Elementary race at the Meet of Champions and are developing a strong team with the 5th graders witnessed by their 2nd place overall team ranking. In the 3k race, sixth graders Jonathan Bell finished 11th in 11:54.9, Thomas Yelton finished 19th in 12:24.5, Jarrod Woods finished 21st in 12:41.4, Nicholas Cummins finished 29th in 13:15.2, and Carson King finished 34th in 13:31.2. Fifth graders Joseph Hamilton finished 45th in 14:45.1, Damon Bryant finished 59th in 15:54.7, Peyton Tully finished 67th in 17:31.1 and Carter Dotson finished 69th in 17:33.

In the girls 6th and under Elementary race, Bracken's 5th grade girls received 4th place team overall. Chloe Routt finished 17th in 14:09, Savannah Jones finished 23rd in 14:27.6, Emma Young finished 35th in 15:32.8, Josie Miller finished 40th in 16:02.1, and Sarah Kirk finished 43rd in 16:11.8. Congratulations to these girls.

Sports in Kentucky

by Bob Watkins

Kentucky earns Signature Win; Bluegrass State loses an icon, Jimmy Feix

Bittersweet in the Bluegrass.

The sweet: Five games in, Kentucky owns its most significant football win in decades. Happened on a Saturday when SEC powers scrambled the standings, left us to see Tennessee and Vanderbilt at the bottom and, ahem, that basketball school near the top.

The bitter: On Sunday the Bluegrass State lost an icon, Jimmy Feix, gentleman ball coach, gentleman otherwise, best of the best son of Kentucky.

In Lexington there is revelry in the land this week. Mid-October and Kentucky folk are abuzz with Air Raid ... JoJo Kemp ... Bud Dupree and nary a word about Willie and The Twins.

In fact, beyond Auburn and Mississippi schools, buzz across the Southeastern Conference is about “that basketball school up north.”

Two questions:

- “Kentucky did whaaaaat to South Carolina? Must be misprint.”

- “Anybody notice Kentucky is thisclose (at Florida) to being, well, unbeaten?”

Last Saturday, the heavens opened and football gods put stars in new alignment.

√ At a little before 8 o’clock, the Spurriers punched Kentucky in the mouth, put the home crowd on mute, led 14-0. Behind this plastic play card, the Ole Ball Coach must have yawned and whispered, “prime time teevee, huh? Let’s show off a little.”

√ Carolina’s Mike Davis buzzed through Kentucky’s front as if it were a scout team on a Wednesday. The Wildcats old bugaboo was back, ‘can’t stop the run.’

√ Home team helped. Lost poise eight times – gifting Carolina 80 yards in penalties with macho man foolish momentum killers.

Then, everything changed. The football gods winked at one another.

The Gamecocks had provided a story line, Kentucky’s All-New-People provided drama, Neil Brown directed the show, and JoJo Kemp starred in it.

By halftime, Carolina had 17, but All-New-People Kentucky also had 17, and Big Mo.

√ End of third quarter Carolina had punched the Wildcats again, gone up 31-17 and Old Familiar began buzzing in the crowd, “... we gave ‘em all they could handle, nice try, boys, get ‘em next year.”

√ Suddenly, quarterback Patrick Towles was a wide receiver and Carolina was befuddled. Couldn’t defend between the guards. JoJo Kemp became a Heisman guy and Steve Spurrier was outcoached.

√ UK play calling was imaginative, nothing short of brilliant.

√ Then came the mystery. Carolina abandoned its run offense that had produced 282 yards. The Spurriers would throw their way back into the game. Nadda. At 2:29-to-go, barely 17 seconds after Kemp and Austin MacGinniss had tied the game, defensive tackle Mike Douglas and linebacker Bud Dupree rose up and sealed it.

√ Bonkers for Big Blue Nation; Signature win for Mark Stoops Inc.

Count me among those who believe his brain was already gauging impact on recruits: ‘did-ya-see-what-we-just-did?’

All-New-People Kentucky defined ...

Infusion of true and red-shirt freshmen with speed, quickness and savvy, is obvious. The all new part ...

√ Holdover players bought in, embraced their coaches’ package.

√ Expect to win for 60 minutes instead of play gallant then surrender in 45-50 is new.

√ Aggression coupled with confidence levels that build on themselves.

√ Team-ness. At game’s end JoJo Kemp turned a predictable “how heroic are you?” question into “It’s not just me. It’s ‘Hey, Why not Kentucky?’” commercial (for prospects).

Epilogue: From football gods to Big Blue Nation: A wink and nod and bolt of lightning then whisperings of bowl game eligibility. And no mention of Willie and The Twins for another week.

EASTERN KENTUCKY

Typically put in media half-shadow by Big Blue Nation big noise, Eastern Kentucky’s gem-of-a-5-and-oh start (2-0 in OVC) has not earned a 48-point headline yet.

To set the tailgate and add suspense – four of ECU’s five wins have come on the road. This week a home date with OVC newcomer Eastern Illinois (1-4).

Suspense factor: The Colonels clubbed Austin Peay 31-0 last week. EIU’s lone win was September 20, Austin Peay, 63-7.

JIMMY FEIX

Best of the best among Kentucky ball coaches, Jimmy Feix left us at 83.

For me, qualifications of a hero. Leader of men with a bark when necessary, but always a grin and twinkle in the eye.

All the wins, trophies, titles, newspaper headlines and accolades are dust now. Feix’s departure leaves us with these questions: Did I contribute well to humankind? Was I loyal to something beyond self?

He did, and more.

“Coach Feix was a legendary figure in so many ways,” Todd Stewart, director of athletics at Western Kentucky University said in a release. “His influence transcended far beyond his role as WKU’s head football coach and athletics director.”

The ever affable Man from Henderson was best of the best among college ball coaches in Kentucky with whom I dealt through decades. Forthright, good humored, effervescent personality, a contrast too many in his profession then and now. And, Feix kept a firm grip on who he was in the grand universe.

Most admirable, his loyalty.

Working Smoke Alarms Save Lives!

Test Yours Every Month!

Smoke alarms are a key part of a home fire escape plan. When there is a fire, smoke spreads fast. Working smoke alarms give you early warning so you can get outside quickly.

Safety tips

- Install smoke alarms inside and outside each bedroom and sleeping area. Install alarms on every level of the home. Install alarms in the basement.
- Large homes may need extra smoke alarms.
- It is best to use interconnected smoke alarms. When one smoke alarm sounds they all sound.

- Test all smoke alarms at least once a month. Press the test button to be sure the alarm is working.

- There are two kinds of alarms. Ionization smoke alarms are quicker to warn about flaming fires. Photoelectric alarms are quicker to warn about smoldering fires. It is best to use of both types of alarms in the home.

- A smoke alarm should be on the ceiling or high on a wall. Keep smoke alarms away from the kitchen to reduce false alarms.
- They should be at least 10 feet (3 meters) from the stove.

- People who are hard-of-hearing or deaf can use special alarms. These alarms have strobe lights and bed shakers.

- Replace all smoke alarms when they are 10 years old.

- Smoke alarms are an important part of a home fire escape plan.

Plan your escape

- Your ability to get out of your house during a fire depends on advance warning from smoke alarms and advance planning.
- Get everyone in your household together and make a home escape plan (PDF, 1.1 MB). Walk through your home and look for two ways out of every room.
- Make sure escape routes are clear of debris and doors and windows open easily. Windows with security bars or grills should have an emergency release device.

- Plan an outside meeting place where everyone will meet once they have escaped. A good meeting place is something permanent, like a tree, light pole, or mailbox a safe distance in front of the home.

- If there are infants, older adults, family members with mobility limitations or children who do not wake to the sound of the smoke alarm, make sure that someone is assigned to assist them in the event of an emergency.

- If the smoke alarm sounds, get outside and stay outside. Respond quickly – get up and go, remember to know two ways out of every room, get yourself outside quickly, and go to your outside meeting place with your family.
